DIRECTORS' REPORT
for the year ended 31 December 2015

The directors present their report, along with their audited financial statements, for the year ended 31 December 2015.

Introduction
Edmund Rice Development ("ERD") is a fundraising body set up to support the vital work being carried out by Christian Brothers and Edmund Rice network in the developing world. Established in 2008, ERD was a direct response to provide transparency and accountability for fundraising efforts across Europe, and received its charitable status in 2009. The Company raises and provides the funding for work within the regions in greatest need. It also provides in-depth development support to core projects.

VISION, MISSION & CORE FUNCTIONS

Vision
A just world in which where the poor and vulnerable are empowered to change their own future.

Mission
To support and enable the global Edmund Rice mission in providing for the education, training and rights of people, especially children, according to the spirit and ideals of Blessed Edmund Rice.

Core Functions
- Proactive Fundraising in Ireland, UK and Europe
- Development support for funded projects
- Receiving funds for ministries, and distributing them to the ministries as per donor requests or ERD directors’ allocations
- Financial stewardship and governance of all donations
- Reporting on all donations; and producing communications to current and potential supporters on ongoing activities
- Participation in global fundraising programmes
- Providing consultancy advice and guidance to other Congregational and European Province Fundraising Entities - as needed and requested by those entities

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE & MANAGEMENT

Governing Document
The Charity is a Company Limited by Guarantee without a Share Capital and is governed by the Memorandum and Articles of Association and was incorporated on the 17th October 2008. The Company has been granted tax exemption by the Revenue Commissioners in Ireland and has a tax exemption CHY 463400.

Organisational Structure
The role of the Board of Directors is to determine the policies of the Company and the strategy for the development of these polices to meet such new challenges as may be evident in the future. The Directors are chosen for their personal qualities and their understanding of the Company. Every Director shall use their best endeavours to promote the objects and interests of the Company and observes the Company’s regulations affecting them. The Directors are well informed about the Mission, governing document and history of the charity and meet several times during the year to review developments with regards to the Charity and its activities. When necessary, they seek advice from the Company’s professional advisors.

REVIEW OF ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE FOR THE YEAR
During 2015, ERD collaborated with relevant bodies on the design and roll-out of the major ERD Capacity Development Project. This focused on three main areas of capacity development:

- Mission Finance Management
- Strategic Development for Global Mission
- Training in Project Cycle Management

An in-depth Mission Finance Manual was produced and adopted by governing bodies in receipt of funding from ERD. A training programme was rolled out and delivered in-country to mission coordinators using a 'train the trainer' approach.

A review of all Project Funding Systems took place to incorporate improved Monitoring and Evaluation processes - in conjunction with those overseeing ministries in the field.

A collaborative Strategic Development Framework for Edmund Rice mission to 2020 was produced and adopted globally.

The first annual Project Planning Meeting and Project Cycle Management training workshop was held for mission coordinators in Dublin.

Monitoring visits were conducted in Nairobi, Kenya; Changa Changa, Zambia; Lima, Peru; Asansol, Kolkata and Wahrnong, India.

Fundraising
As per the 'ERD Business Plan 2014-16', ERD continued to focus its fundraising activities in 2015 on:

- Generating funding for Our Way Into the Future
- Training and Capacity-building
- Core Projects that are in line with best-practice development principles
- Co-funding of agency grants
- Advocacy activities

€1,174,603 was raised and allocated to 45 Edmund Rice formal and informal education, community engagement and human rights and advocacy projects and programmes in 13 countries across Africa, Latin America and India.

A full list of projects funded is listed on pages 21-22 of this report.

During the period, institutional funding levels amounted to €633,878. Relationships with core funding agencies were strengthened, and the Irish government's missionary funding agency, Misean Cara, remained a major source of funding for the Company.

Private donor income of €207,487 was received during the year.

- The ERD West Africa Ebola Relief Fund generated support for the relief efforts of Brothers and Edmund Rice people in Liberia and Sierra Leone.
- The second ERD Big Match Dinner in September 2015 was held for corporate and individual supporters to generate support for ERD missions. The dinner was attended by over 230 people and raised funds for projects including The Hermano Manolo Centre, Cochabamba, Bolivia; Advocacy initiatives and Our Way into the Future;
- The third ERD Donor Impact Report was published detailing the impact of all funding raised and allocated to projects during 2014. The report was distributed to all donors, volunteers and supporters and is available for download from the ERD website.
Edmund Rice Development

- ERD's Mission Month Programme hosted two brothers from Latin America who visited schools and Edmund Rice Groups across Ireland. During mission month of October, booklets were distributed to schools and community groups highlighting partnership opportunities and core projects, co-funding and other priority needs.

- The 'Spirit of Edmund' photographic exhibition was hosted at the Emmaus Retreat Centre to raise further awareness about the Edmund Rice mission. The roving exhibition will travel to other Edmund Rice centres during 2016.

- In 2015, ERD adopted the Dochas Code of Conduct of Images and Messaging for all communications and began the process to become an associate member of Dochas.

ERD also provided direct fundraising and other services to Edmund Rice Bicentennial Trust - donations received in the UK and internationally were received there. In 2014, Edmund Rice Development formally assumed administrative responsibility for Edmund Rice Bicentennial Trust's operations. 'Edmund Rice Development' became the trading name for Edmund Rice Bicentennial Trust.

PLANS FOR THE FUTURE
In 2016 Edmund Rice Development will commence the development of its five year Strategic Plan which will map out the organisation's goals, objectives and activities for 2017-21. In the meantime, ERD continues to work towards the fulfilment of the organisation's Business Plan 2014-2016. In 2016 this will entail working with leadership and key mission personnel to define funding needs and to collaborate on resourcing these.
ERD also continues to work alongside other development agencies, such as Edmund Rice Foundation Australia to harmonise approaches to funding and governance across the Christian Brothers and Edmund Rice Network. Partnership agreements will be agreed between partner governing bodies.
ERD will proceed to become an associate member of Dóchas, adopting the Governance Code and the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising.
ERD will seek to develop support for all of the above areas by proactively engaging with more funding agencies, Brothers, past pupils, schools and other friends through a wide range of events and fundraising initiatives.

ERD Business Plan 2015-16 - Key elements:
Funding Areas: ERD will focus on raising funds for the following four funding areas:

i) Our Way into the Future - the Congregation's vision and strategy for life and mission into the future. Funding will support the training of the new implementation team and of Brothers for new Mission and Hub Communities, also in time, the set-up and running costs of new Hubs and Communities.

ii) Ministries: A group of 'Core Projects' which are in line with the Our Way into the Future vision, have a leadership structure and three year development plan. ERD will also continue to receive donations for all ministries, and to distribute this funding to any Edmund Rice/Christian Brothers project as per the wishes of individual donors.

iii) Edmund Rice People: Training, Spirituality and Formation costs of Brothers and Edmund Rice people working with the poor of the developing world.

iv) Advocacy: Human Rights and Advocacy activities and programmes of Edmund Rice International and those working with the poor of the developing world.
Edmund Rice Development

for the year ended 31 December 2015

The Directors intend to manage the company as efficiently and effectively as possible in order to achieve the goals of the Business Plan and aims of the charity to continue to give support to future projects.

Financial review
During the year, the charity received income of €1,313,364. Charitable funding of €1,174,603 was distributed during 2015. Costs associated with generating funds and Governance costs totalled €441,247 which were funded by a single grant (see below). At 31 December 2015 the charity had a surplus of €340,670.

Operational Costs
In 2015 ERD received funding to support administration and costs of raising funds from Edmund Rice Bicentennial Trust Limited.

Related Party
Edmund Rice Bicentennial Trust Limited is a separately established company limited by guarantee and not having a share capital. It is a registered charity with the UK Charity Commissioner under charitable number 1098358. Br Daniel O'Keeffe is a director of both ERD and Edmund Rice Bicentennial Trust Limited.

STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

The directors are responsible for preparing the financial statements in accordance with applicable Irish law, the Charities Act 2009 and Generally Accepted Accounting Practice in Ireland including FRS102 SORP and the accounting standards issued by the Accounting Standards Board and published by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Ireland.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that year. In preparing these financial statements the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- follow FRS102 SORP, or otherwise ensure particulars of any material departures are disclosed and explained,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors confirm that they have complied with the above requirements in preparing the financial statements.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting standards generally accepted in Ireland, FRS 102 SORP, the Charities Act 2009 and with Irish Statute comprising the Companies Act 2014, and all Regulations to be construed as one with those Acts. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

to the Members of Edmund Rice Development

We have audited the financial statements of Edmund Rice Development for the year ended 31 December 2015, set out on pages 11 to 19. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is Irish law and accounting standards issued by the Financial Reporting Council and promulgated by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Ireland (Generally Accepted Accounting Practice in Ireland) including Financial Reporting Standard 102 ‘The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland.

This report is made solely to the company’s members, as a body, in accordance with Section 391 of the Companies Act 2014. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company’s members those matters we are required to state them in an Auditor’s report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company’s members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors
As explained more fully in the Directors’ Responsibilities Statement set out on page 8, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements giving a true and fair view.

Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements and express an opinion in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Accounting Practice Board’s Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit
An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of: whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company’s circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed; the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the directors; and the overall presentation of the financial statements. In addition, we read all the financial and non-financial information in the director’s report to identify any inconsistencies with the audited financial statements and to identify any information that is apparently materially incorrect based on, or materially inconsistent with, the knowledge acquired by us in the course of performing the audit. If we become aware of any apparent material misstatements or inconsistencies we consider the implications for our report.

Opinion on financial statements
In our opinion the financial statements:
- give a true and fair view in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Practice in Ireland of the state of the company’s affairs as at 31 December 2015, and of its incoming resources and application of resources, for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2014.

Matters on which we are required to report by the Companies Act 2014
- We have obtained all of the information and explanations which we consider necessary for the purposes of our audit.
- In our opinion proper books of account have been kept by the company.
- The financial statements are in agreement with the books of account.
- In our opinion the information given in the Directors’ report is consistent with the financial statements.
INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT

to the Members of Edmund Rice Development

Matters on which we are required to report by exception
We have nothing to report to you in respect of the provisions in the Companies Act 2014 which require us to report to you if, in our opinion the disclosures of directors' remuneration and transactions specified by law are not made.

ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Preparation
The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Ireland and Irish statute comprising the Companies Act 2014, the Charities Act 2009 and FRS 102. They comply with the financial reporting standards of the Accounting Standards Board, as promulgated by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Ireland. The following accounting policies have been applied consistently in dealing with items which are considered material in relation to the company’s financial statements.

This is the first year FRS 102 SORP has applied to the financial statements (See note 10).

Accounting Convention
The accounts are prepared under the historical cost convention.

Revenue recognition
Revenue is derived from donations received. Revenue is recognised when it is capable of reliable measurement and the principle risks and rewards of ownership have passed to the company. Donations received are recognised in income on a cash receipts basis.

Donations paid
Donations to support various ministries and projects are recognised when the payments are made.

Expenditure
Resources expended are recognised in the period in which they are incurred. Resources expended include attributable VAT which cannot be recovered.

Unrestricted Funds
Unrestricted Funds are donated and other incoming resources receivable or generated for the objects of the charity without further purpose and are available as general funds.

Restricted Funds
Restricted Funds are to be used for specific purposes as laid down by the donor. Expenditure which meets these criteria is charged to the purpose intended, together with a fair allocation of management and support costs.
